The net proceeds converted to the use of PR DRD, were not returned to PR DOE, and were utilized for purposes outside of the scope of the covenant.
79. [1] RAMON ORTA RODRIGUEZ obtained services for the benefit of PR DRD that were paid through funds from PR HUD despite the fact that the covenant between PR DRD and PRPHA did not authorize the payment for such services.
80. The PR DRD contracts awarded to Rosso were inflated to provide net proceeds to Rosso which were distributed amongst co-conspirators.
81. Members of the conspiracy received payments from federal funds to which they were not entitled.

91. Members of the conspiracy utilized email and text messages to communicate with each other regarding the conspiracy.

Education Projects

92. Members of the conspiracy met in Puerto Rico after the November 2012 election to discuss how [1] RAMON ORTA RODRIGUEZ could obtain the position of Secretary of PR DRD and to devise a scheme to enrich themselves utilizing prospective covenants between PR DRD and the PR DOE.

93. Upon being named Secretary of PR DRD, [1] RAMON ORTA RODRIGUEZ agreed with members of the conspiracy to submit multiple work plans for federal funding on behalf of the PR DRD to the PR DOE.
94. Work plans were submitted to the PR DOE on behalf of the PR DRD and were created by co-conspirators that were not employees of PR DRD.
95. Work plans submitted to the PR DOE included project costs in an amount that would net significant proceeds for the PR DRD and members of the conspiracy. Some work plans were rejected by the PR DOE, due to deficiencies in the work plans, including but not limited to the submission of unreasonable project costs.
96. When work plans were approved by the PR DOE, separate covenants were signed between the PR DOE and PR DRD. [1] RAMON ORTA RODRIGUEZ signed the covenants as Secretary of the PR DRD.
97. The covenants between the PR DOE and PR DRD signed by [1] RAMON ORTA RODRIGUEZ contained material misrepresentations that PR DRD was able to perform the activities subject to the proposals. The PR DRD lacked the personnel to perform the activities subject to the covenants.
98. The covenants between the PR DOE and the PR DRD signed by [1] RAMON ORTA RODRIGUEZ contained a clause that prohibited the PR DRD from completely subcontracting the activities subject to the covenant.
99. In violation of the covenants, [1] RAMON ORTA RODRIGUEZ signed contracts on behalf of PR DRD with Rosso to provide all of the services required by the covenants with the PR DOE.

100. Members of the conspiracy concealed that Rosso was the provider of the services that PR DRD agreed to perform.
101. Members of the conspiracy prepared and submitted documentation without identifying Rosso as the provider of services so that other members of the conspiracy could submit the documentation to PR DOE without identifying Rosso as the provider of the services.
102. Members of the conspiracy solicited and requested payment from PR DOE to PR DRD for services actually rendered by Rosso.
103. [1] RAMON ORTA RODRIGUEZ, as Secretary of PR DRD, subcontracted the services to Rosso at a lower price than PR DRD had contracted to be paid by PR DOE.
104. [1] RAMON ORTA RODRIGUEZ intended to obtain net proceeds for PR DRD from the covenants with PR DOE by subcontracting all of the services to Rosso at a lower cost.
105. [1] RAMON ORTA RODRIGUEZ obtained approximately seven hundred ninety nine thousand seven hundred forty dollars ($799,740) for PR DRD from the net proceeds from the Aprendo Saludable project, based on the difference between the three million nine hundred ninety eight thousand seven hundred dollar ($3,998,700) contract with PR DOE and the three million one hundred ninety eight thousand nine hundred sixty dollar ($3,198,960) contract with Rosso.
106. [1] RAMON ORTA RODRIGUEZ disbursed funds from PR DRD to co-conspirators to operate and promote a boxing endeavor and boxing events through Global.

107. The education contracts awarded by [1] RAMON ORTA RODRIGUEZ to Rosso were not subject to competitive bidding or any scrutiny from the PR DOE.

HUD Projects

108. Members of the conspiracy met in Puerto Rico in or about February and March 2015 to discuss the production of television programs for the PR DRD.
109. [1] RAMON ORTA RODRIGUEZ, as Secretary of the PR DRD, solicited and obtained federal funding from US HUD via PRPHA to pay for one television program related to activities in public housing programs in Puerto Rico.
110. [1] RAMON ORTA RODRIGUEZ directed a television producer, Individual A, to contact [4] MIGUEL SOSA SUAREZ regarding the specifics of television productions for PR DRD.
111. [1] RAMON ORTA RODRIGUEZ contracted with Rosso for the television production services of one television program related to activities in public housing programs.
112. The contracts awarded by [1] RAMON ORTA RODRIGUEZ to Rosso were not subject to competitive bidding or any scrutiny from PRPHA.
113. [4] MIGUEL SOSA SUAREZ directed Individual A to provide services for two distinct and separate television programs and to bill Rosso for the totality of the services. The two television programs were 1) VEA and 2) DRD.TV.
114. The DRD.TV program was not included in the covenant between PR DRD and PRPHA.

115. In and about 2015 and 2016, Individual A produced approximately 38 episodes of VEA and approximately 38 episodes of DRD.TV for PR DRD.
116. Individual A received directions regarding the production of the DRD.TV program from personnel at PR DRD.
117. [4] MIGUEL SOSA SUAREZ directed Individual A to increase the invoice amount from approximately sixteen thousand seven hundred fifty dollars ($16,750) to approximately thirty nine thousand four hundred seventy dollars ($39,470) per episode for both television programs.
118. Individual A sent invoices to personnel of Rosso based on a cost of approximately $39,470 per episode for both television programs.
119. Rosso personnel would send the inflated invoice to PR DRD so that a payment would be processed.
120. [4] MIGUEL SOSA SUAREZ directed Individual A to make payments to [4] MIGUEL SOSA SUAREZ in the amount of the difference between the inflated invoice and the actual cost to Individual A to produce the two television programs.
121. In or about 2016, [3] OSCAR RODRIGUEZ TORRES directed Individual A to make payments to Rosso rather than [4] MIGUEL SOSA SUAREZ in the amount of the difference between the inflated invoice and actual cost to Individual A to produce the two television programs.
122. Upon receipt of payment, Individual A would make a payment to [4] MIGUEL SOSA SUAREZ or Rosso for the difference between the actual cost of services and the inflated amount of the invoice.

123. On occasion, PR DRD would request that Individual A produce a live sporting event for PR DRD with the payment to be deducted from the portion of the funds owed to [4] MIGUEL SOSA SUAREZ from the inflation of the invoice.

124. With [4] MIGUEL SOSA SUAREZ' consent, Individual A provided additional services for those events and received payment by reducing the amount paid to [4] MIGUEL SOSA SUAREZ from the inflation of the invoice for the VEA program.

125. By adding the DRD.TV television program and additional events to the services to be rendered by Individual A, PR DRD was able to utilize federal funds from the PRPHA to pay for the DRD.TV television program and other events without receiving any authorization to do so from US HUD or PRPHA.

126. By increasing the invoices submitted by Individual A to Rosso, members of the conspiracy caused the fraudulent submission of invoices for payment with federal funds.

Efforts to Conceal Lack of Competitive Bidding Process

127. Members of the conspiracy took steps to create fake bids and documents containing false information in an attempt to conceal the manner in which [1] RAMON ORTA RODRIGUEZ awarded contracts to Rosso.

128. [1] RAMON ORTA RODRIGUEZ directed [2] EDGARDO VAZQUEZ MORALES to obtain fake proposals to include in PR DRD records to make it appear as if a competitive bidding process had been used when awarding contracts to Rosso.

129. [2] EDGARDO VAZQUEZ MORALES utilized project proposals from multiple companies, without their consent, as fake bids. The fake bids did not pertain to the same services as the contracts awarded to Rosso.

130. PR DRD documents were falsified, back dated, and signed by members of the conspiracy in order to make it appear that a competitive bidding process had been used to award contracts to Rosso.
131. No competitive bidding process was used for any contracts awarded by [1] RAMON ORTA RODRIGUEZ to Rosso.
132. [2] EDGARDO VAZQUEZ MORALES solicited and received payments from [3] OSCAR RODRIGUEZ TORRES for the purported solicitation of fake bids from other companies as a part of the scheme to conceal the manner in which [1] RAMON ORTA RODRIGUEZ awarded contracts to Rosso.
