Request To Eliminate Fine
To the Honorable court:

- 1) I has been in jail since June 2, 2014.
- 2) The court impose a Fine of $200,000 the day of my sentence.
- 3) I am unable to pay the Fine because my economic situation deteriorate since time pass.
- 4) I don't have accounts, credit lines, credit cards or property that enable me to fulfill my obligations.
- 5) I don't think I will never recover in order to be able to pay the high amount of the fine.
- 6) I have lost my reputation, my business my career, jobs and all my economic possibilities.

- 7) In order to get back to track or at least try, I beg this court to eliminate or reduce the current fine.
- 8) My family have hire Mr. Rafael Castro Lang, Esq. to advocate my rule 35 (reduction of sentence) promised by the government. He has been contract for that purpose only. My family have paid his fees.
- 9) Any how, they are on an economic hardship. Both of my kids require expensive medical treatment. My family has been unable to paid one of them. Went I had the car accident on 2012 in a responsible way took care of the other driver kids and family. Now I Can't take care of my owns and no one care. They are innocent and good kids. I had been sentence of fifteen (15) years more at state level, usually defendants gets 3 years probation on those charge. I have work hard and study all my life and helped several kids diseases foundations. During my process the media said I was rich now they can't get the help they need.
- 10) For all the presented arguments I beg this court to consider my situation and eliminate the fine.
- 11) Please furnish copy of all present motions. My current address is
